FOOTBALL FEDERATION AUSTRALIA TERMS OF ACCREDITATION FOR AAA AND RA ACCREDITATION

By accepting and using the AAA or RA accreditation pass (Accreditation) issued to you by Football Federation Australia Limited ACN 106 478 068 (FFA), you agree to be bound by the following terms (Agreement):

Terms of Use

1. You must comply with all terms of this Agreement and any applicable Terms of Admission to the Venue as prescribed by FFA from time to time, to the extent that those Terms of Admission do not directly conflict with the rights granted in your Accreditation (for example, players and team officials may be permitted to enter the field of play notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Terms of Admission).
2. The Accreditation is issued to you personally and cannot be loaned, transferred, assigned or licensed to any other person.
3. The Accreditation is, and remains at all times, the property of FFA. FFA may suspend or revoke Accreditation at any time.
4. The Accreditation must be maintained in good condition and it must not be altered, damaged or destroyed. You must immediately return Accreditation upon FFA's request.
5. The Accreditation must be worn and prominently displayed at all times while in the Venue, other than when your role at the Match prevents you from doing so (such as players on the field and television presenters on camera).
6. You will gain entrance to the Venue (and a zone within the Venue) only with your ticket (if applicable) and on presentation of valid Accreditation and, if requested by Venue staff, proof of identity.
7. The terms of Accreditation set out on your Accreditation pass must be complied with at all times (including in relation to which parts of the Venue you are permitted to access). If you fail to comply with this term, FFA may, at its discretion, immediately revoke Accreditation.
8. You must comply with the directions of FFA staff whilst in and around the Venue on Match day.
9. FFA may at any time issue further directions, conditions and policies relating to Accreditation and access to the Venue, which you agree to comply with.
10. You must not:
  - (a) carry or wear any political, promotional, advertising or other commercial material of whatever nature (other than material approved by FFA), which is visible at the Match.
  - (b) conduct yourself in a manner which brings FFA, the Match or football into disrepute.
11. You agree to comply with other relevant FFA rules and regulations (including the Spectator Code of Behaviour available at www.footballaustralia.com.au) and any Venue conditions of entry, to the extent that those conditions do not directly conflict with your rights granted under Accreditation.

Prohibition on film or recording

12. From two hours before the start of the Match until one (1) hour after the end of the Match, only the Host Broadcaster of the Match (and other FFA approved rights holding broadcasters) is allowed to film or record any vision inside the Venue (including in the dressing rooms and on the field of play). For the avoidance of doubt, this means that you (unless you are a representative of the Host Broadcaster) cannot record “stand-ups” with the crowd, Venue or Match in the background.

Integrity

13. You must, to the extent applicable to you, comply with all terms of FFA’s Mobile and Communication Devices Policy, as amended from time to time.
14. You must not use any information obtained by virtue of Accreditation for the purpose of betting on any Match or in any other way which may amount to a breach of FFA’s National Code of Conduct.

Replacement, suspension or cancellation

15. Lost or stolen Accreditation must be immediately reported to FFA in writing. FFA may, in its absolute discretion, issue replacement Accreditation and charge a replacement fee.
16. A breach of this Agreement may result in your Accreditation being suspended or revoked and you being evicted from the Venue.
17. The suspension or revocation of Accreditation by FFA and your eviction from the Venue, is without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that FFA may have against you or the company, organisation or business that you represent. Suspension, revocation and eviction may also impact on rights to accreditation for you and your company, organisation, or business at future FFA events and matches.

Liability

18. You agree:
    - (a) that your movement in and around the Venue is at your own risk;
    - (b) not to bring any claim or proceeding against FFA for any damage, loss, injury or liability you may suffer in accessing the Venue or carrying out your duties; and
    - (c) to safeguard your equipment or property (including personal property such as bags and money) and acknowledge that FFA is not responsible for any lost, stolen or damaged property.
  19. FFA:
    - (a) is not liable to you for any loss or damage you suffer as a result of the Match being cancelled, postponed or changed;
    - (b) disclaims the existence of any common law duty of care to you and any holder of the ticket; and

- (c) will not replace your ticket (if applicable) if it is lost, stolen, forgotten, damaged, forged or unreadable (unless, at FFA's discretion, you can demonstrate proof of purchase and identity acceptable to FFA).

Privacy

20. The personal information that FFA collects on the Form is used for the purpose of processing your request for accreditation. You may request access to personal information FFA holds about you by sending an email to privacy@footballaustralia.com.au. For full details of FFA's Privacy Policy, go to www.footballaustralia.com.au.
21. You acknowledge that you may be filmed or recorded while in the Venue and that you will not make any claim against FFA for the use of your name, voice, image and/or likeness in association with such film or recording.

General

22. FFA may choose not to enforce a term of this Agreement in some cases in its absolute discretion without affecting its right to enforce that term in other cases or its right to enforce other terms of this Agreement.
23. The dates, times, participating teams and the Venue of the Match may change without notice to you.
24. This Agreement is governed by the law applicable in the State of New South Wales and each party submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of that state.
